16 Gauge Mild Steel or Corten Steel

CUSTOM Sizes and Designs Available - CALL

Fire Pit Liners or Fire Rings block are built to protect your block or stone fire pit from direct flames. Liner will oxidize over time to patina color. Made of Heavy 16 gauge Carbon Steel or Corten Steel.

- 24", 30" and 36" sizes: 3 pieces of steel with 6 bolts.
- 42" and 48" sizes are 4 pieces of steel with eight bolts.

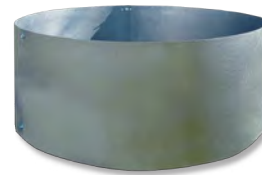

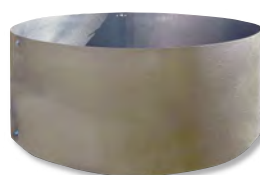

Patina color from natural oxidation over time. Accelerant can speed up the oxidation process.

- 54" and 60" sizes are 5 pieces of steel with ten bolts.
- All are 14" Tall

CORTEN STEEL OPTION

- Corten Steel will have a brighter, more golden look than you would have with mild steel.
- Corten Steel has lifespan between 40 to 120 years.
- When Corten Steel gets scratched, it will self-heal itself to stop any further corrosion.
- Over the lifetime of the Corten Steel, it will change from an orange-brown color to a more darker brown color (2 to 6 years for full patina - 25 times slower rust rate than mild carbon steel).

DAMAGED FREIGHT

Upon inspection of delivered products, if the package was delivered via FedEx ground or UPS ground, email us at sales@masterflame1.com when you notice any damages and we'll reship a new product and take care of all claims. If the product comes on a skid / pallet via common carrier (LTL) such as an extremely large fire pit screen. Inspect the product before signing any paperwork. Upon inspection, if you notice damages then refuse the freight and call us and we'll reship you a new product. All of our products have stickers on the package. Do not accept if product is damage. This is very important. Once you sign the paper work you are saying that you received the product in good shape and there are no damages. In the unfortunate event that a product is delivered and you do sign for it without inspecting the product first – then according to the freight companies' policies all damage claims must be filed by the consignee (the receiving customer) If you have any questions, please call 630.238.0611. It's best that you completely understand this before ordering and freight being delivered via Common LTL carriers. If you arrange for your freight company to pick up any product from our warehouse, we will not accept liability for any damages. This would be between you and whomever picked up the freight from our warehouse. This includes any freight forwarding companies as well.

PRICE POLICY: All prices are subject to change without notice. Orders are subject to credit approval at time of placement.
